

On 12th January, Government Training College, Hooghly organized International Youth Day. It was 162th birthday of Swami Vivekananda. The whole programme was divided into two parts –

At first, a cultural programme was held in our college. Dr. Pratap Kumar Jana was the president of the programme. The whole programme was arranged by the cultural department of Government Training College, Hooghly. Some students actively participated in the programme. Some cultural events like music, recitation were performed by some students.

After that, a community outreach programme was held. The students of Government Training College, Hooghly interacted with the persons who lived in the slum areas near the college. A questionnaire was prepared. Necessary datas were collected by the students.
