Sisir Kumar Chatterjee, Associate Professor of English at Hooghly Mohsin College, joined us. Our Principal, Dr. Goutam Patra, presided over the occasion.

The program consisted of two halves. The first half began with a speech by Prokash Mal, Cultural Secretary of the Student Council. This was followed by the opening song, "We Shall Overcome," performed by our first-semester students under the guidance of Professor Santwana Acharya. Our respected guest Dr. Sisir Kumar Chatterjee was felicitated, a sapling was presented to Dr. Sisir Kumar Chatterjee as a memento. He then watered the tree, symbolizing hope for a better world, joined by our Principal and professors.

On December 10, 2024, Government Training College, Hooghly, observed World Human Rights Day with enthusiasm. This year's theme, "Our Rights, Our Future, Right Now," was chosen by the UN.

The program aimed to promote and celebrate human rights, ensuring dignity and respect for all individuals, regardless of their background. Our esteemed guest, Dr.

The second half of the program began with a streamed speech by UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres on human rights.

Our first semester student Md. Shahbaz Ansari delivered a speech on the day's significance. Dr. Sisir Kumar Chatterjee, the chief guest, delivered a valuable and insightful speech that profoundly enriched the students. Professor Nagarjun Bharadwaj delivered a captivating and insightful speech, despite its brevity. Lastly, our Principal Dr. Goutam Patra highlighted the irony of human rights violations being self-inflicted, yet concluded on an optimistic note.

The program ended with the college song. A light refreshment was also arranged. The Cultural Secretary of the Student Council extended a vote of thanks.
